PRANA

When the weather changes I begin to review the pieces in my closet. I am looking for pieces that fit my active lifestyle and if possible are sustainable. I have been wearing prAna clothing for the past couple of years. I am always looking for their special pieces, that you can wear every day. I was so excited to look at new pieces in their Fall line.

VASQUE BREEZE

The brand new Vasque Breeze LT GTX boots are the most comfortable boots I've ever worn. They climb. They grip in dirt, on rocks, in mud, and in the rain. They support. They keep water out. More than any other boot I've used, these merge the support of a boot with the comfort and lightness of a trail runner. They are impressive.

TARGET

In the past few years, Target has been putting an emphasis on launching their own in-house brands from home organization to clothing. When they launched the "Prologue" line it steps in the direction towards workwear pieces. With the changing work environment, it is the perfect time to take a look at what they have to offer, and I love the selection of sweaters.

DYSON AIRWRAP

After months of being in the house, I was ready to give my hair a chance and this seemed like the perfect tool to start with. The Airwrap is ideal for hair like mine. I have super fine, and flat hair so I wanted a tool that would give me volume and shape. This technology carefully heats your hair without the damage of heat styling.

I loved the ease of using the soft smoothing brush attachment for quickly drying my hair right out of the shower after a quick towel dry. Took all of ten minutes!

N.L. MCLAUGHLIN

The holidays are here and with all the excitement, hustle, and bustle of the winter holidays. Of course, winter also means cold, but that doesn't mean you can't be warm and stylish. However, stylish clothing is one thing; jewelry can bring style to a whole new level. With that in mind, I recently was introduced to N.L. McLaughlin jewelry for the holidays.

The brand creates trendy designs with the best materials, including Sterling Silver, Gold over Sterling Silver, Rose Gold over Sterling Silver, natural stones, and crystals. All designs are one-of-a-kind, nature-inspired, and great gifts for the holidays.

KIEHL'S

One of my favorite brands has released their annual gift sets. If you ask anyone their favorite Kiehl's product, chances are they will have an answer. I personally love buying gift sets for Christmas because it means the recipient either gets to be stocked up on their favorites or they get to try something new, not to mention the gift boxes themselves are utterly gorgeous and great to keep little things in. This set is great for skincare lovers or, someone looking to get into skincare, including a deep pore mask, calendula toner, the calendula face wash, and Ultra Facial Cream.

KICKEE PANTS

When I get home after a long day of errands or working at home, the first thing I want to do is put on my comfiest pajamas or loungewear the second I walk through the door. I know that I am not the only one feeling that way these days. We all are looking for a warm and cozy way for us to feel safe.

So, I was hooked when I read that KicKee Pants, a family-run and family-oriented company, creates all of their cute clothes and accessories for adults also. KicKee pants are known for their children's clothing but they have a line for adults also.

BAREFOOT SCIENTIST

The holidays are the most stressful time of the year, and especially this year. We have not been taking care of our skin; especially our feet the right way. We don't get to take a break and go to the spa. This is why I love the Barefoot Scientist, they have the perfect gifts for your feet. Self-care is something that everyone on your holiday list could use a little more of this year.

If you know someone who is running around all day or on their feet then the Sweet Dreams set is for you or that special person on your holiday list. The set contains everything for those hardworking feet.

THEORY X GIRL UP

On December 1st Theory launched a limited-edition unisex t-shirt in partnership with Girl Up: shop the limited editor tee Theory x Girl Up tee. For everyone one sold, Theory is donating a percentage of proceeds to Girl Up in continued support of its mission to improve gender equality and social change. Theory has partnered with Girl Up throughout the year amid key moments to shed light on the important work of the organization to help advance gender equality, give girls a voice, and empower the next generation.

LASCANA

You can celebrate the holiday this season with this adorable Winter Print Pajama Set, which means you can be comfortable, spread cheer, and look great. This pajama set will quickly become a favorite for the entire winter.

The long sleeve top features a rounded neckline and reindeer front print. The pants are super soft and offer an elastic drawstring waistband so you can adjust to the perfect fit. And who doesn't love pockets!? They also feature side pockets! This machine-washable set is definitely a must-have. I love how it makes you feel cozy and ready for the season.

MALI + LILI

Mali + Lili is a modern lifestyle accessories brand that was founded in 2017 by JoAnne Wannarachue Lord. The Mali + Lili handbag line quickly filled a void in the market by offering contemporary hands-free designs, great quality, and value.

The inspiration for the Mali + Lili brand is the multi-tasking woman. She has many roles and is constantly on-the-go whether it's her busy career, running errands around town, taking care of her family, or all of the above.

Mali + Lili accessories are designed to have multi-functional features.

RHEA CHERIE

Are you looking to relax and recharge? Created to provide comfortable loungewear in intricate designs, Rhea Cherie promotes focusing on self-care in style. With trendy lounge sets and silky nightgowns, you'll get a real taste for pampering yourself in her products.

32 DEGREES

When I first heard about 32 Degrees clothes. I figured they were a cold weather company. However, that is not the case. 32 Degrees does have clothing to keep you warm, but they also carry a full line of "cool" clothing. This is clothing that keeps you cool when it's hot outside. When I think about the clothing brand, what comes to mind is comfort and fit.

COZY EARTH

Going to bed has never felt so good! This brand has become my latest cozy-chic go-to for luxurious bamboo loungewear and bedding. Cozy Earth offers loungewear and PJs that feel like heaven and are made from lightweight, breathable bamboo.

Enjoy a restful night's sleep in their original soft, hypoallergenic, breathable bamboo sheets. Not all sheets are created equal and once you try this brand you'll know what I'm talking about.

ICONI LEGGINGS

You will have to visit the website to shop for other activewear, but the brand's centerpiece leggings are the best. In these leggings you can run, squat, jump, stretch, do yoga, and anything else you want to do. The leggings are also squat proof and chafe resistant. In addition, all their tops and sports bras are chafe resistance and moisture-wicking. You will always feel good about the 10% that is donated to a nonprofit organization for each purchase.

ANN TAYLOR

When I would attend events in New York, I always loved the classic faux leather pants. This Ann Taylor has introduced the Faux Leather High Waist Ankle Pant in Navy. Blue is my favorite color so I was thrilled to add this to my closet. These pants are buttery soft and have a very luxurious look and feel to them. They truly look like real high-quality leather, which few of these faux leathers look like. They are classic in fit and won't go out of style.

To top off the look I paired the pants with the Plaid Jacquard Sweater it adds the perfect current touch. I love how the colors just pop and it is so soft and cozy. I love the extra long raglan sleeves. This sweater will also go great with white pants or a blue skirt.

7 FOR ALL MANKIND

I got to try the Velvet High Waist Ankle Skinny pants and paired them with the Touch of Cashmere Tie Waist Sweater. These two pieces are perfect for the holidays.

The pants gave me that dressed-up feeling, the soft velvet is pure luxury. It has a touch of stretch and is so comfortable so you can wear it all day.

The sweater has an elegant and easygoing feeling. It has a belted tie that defines the waist. It will be a timeless staple in my closet.

BANANA REPUBLIC COATIGAN

I really fell in love with this Birdseye Duster Coatigan from Banana Republic. This year our overall outfits and styling have shifted to more relaxed and comfortable looks. However, we also are looking to look a little put together and stylish.

I have seen a few coatigans in the market, but this one from Banana Republic caught my eye instantly.
