HOLIDAY

GIFT
GUIDE:

CHILDREN

I am SO excited to finally share a SUPER exciting project I have been working on behind the scenes for the past few months (yes, months!). It is time to see all the collaborations on a Holiday Gift Guide

In August, I promised that we would quit daydreaming and actually DO IT. I felt I could bring a unique perspective to a specific gift category and to share favorite products in different categories.

Together, each gift was hand-picked to create a comprehensive gift guide that all of my readers can browse through and hopefully find a perfect gift for the special people on their holiday shopping lists.

Our Gift Guide has amazing (and affordable!!) ideas for just about everyone on your list. And not only did we want the gift guide to be diverse and affordable, we also wanted it to be straight forward and easy to read/click through.

And let's be honest, the LESS time we spend shopping, the more time we can spend enjoying the holidays with the amazing people in our lives.

From all of us to you, Happy Shopping... let the holiday fun begin!!
