SUREFIT

One of the easiest ways to temporarily change your home décor is with slipcovers and the Surefit Home Décor brand has something for everyone. Grab a slipcover for your loveseat and sofa in red or gold and magically you have transformed your safe into a holiday haven.

The refreshing, elegant, and unified look with colors that highlight the holiday feel will lift your spirits and bring your home décor to life. It also has the added benefit of protecting your furniture from spills and wears and tear, and when you are ready you can take them off, wash them and store them for next year.

ZAK DESIGNS

This year, Zak Designs is doing something special for those who love Disney. If you love Disney then you will want these holiday treasures. These new ceramic teapots set you up for those comfortable feelings of nostalgia and enjoy the time you are spending at home during these pandemic times. It will make you believe that things will be alright.

GLADE

Well, the holidays are here, and after the year that we have had, I am looking for ways to brighten up the home during the holidays.

Holidays are about spreading love, and happiness and being thankful for what we have.

The first step to getting my home ready is to clean the entire house. Then it is time to unpack all of my holiday décors and decorate for the season. I always know that it's time to begin decorating once I see the Glade Holiday Limited Edition Scents.

MADE TERRA

I was so happy to find Made Terra to help me with all of my organizational needs. I also love that they are doing good in the world. Made Terra's goal is to bring local, authentic, ethically-sourced artisan made products at the most competitive and the highest quality. Their vision is to put people and the planet first. Every purchase you make with them impacts the life and community of its makers in Vietnam. These hand-crafted pieces are made to last and will help you keep organized and look brighten your home décor in the process.

LEVTEX HOME

I love adding festive sheets during the holidays. This year, however, I wanted to have simple sheets to go with my luxury bedding. I choose silver to go with the blush bedding set. I just love the crisp, tailored feeling it brings to our bedroom. The soft blush adds compliments to my wall color and the curtains that I choose. This bedding is so soft and luxurious, at first I was wondering if it would keep me warm enough, but it has done the job perfectly
